

MONDAY, JUNE 11, 1744

Since our last arriv'd two Mails from Flanders.

Naples, May 21.

We have private Intelligence from the Army, notwithstanding all the Pains taken to prevent it, importing, that there are great Discontents there, on Account of his Majesty's visible Partiality to Spanish Councils. The Duke de Castro Pignano has actually refused to obey the Orders of M. de Gages, notwithstanding his Majesty sent for him, and expostulated him on that Subject; and another General Officer under Arrest. The Report rais'd concerning the Duke de Montalegre, was owing to his writing a Letter to the King on the Head of these Misunderstandings; in which he advised his Majesty to issue in his own Name, or to give the Command of the Army absolutely to the Duke of Modena; whose Majesty, however, rejected this Advice; has sent for Spanish Battalions from Sicily, which, with five that are already in the Neighbourhood of this City, will soon join the Army. We are thoroughly persuaded here, that the King and the Spanish Generals will not suffer the Austrians to enter Kingdom; the same Consequences being apprehended thence, as if a Battle was lost; whereas, if the Austrians should be victorious, he will not only prevent an issue, but fix the Affairs of his Kingdom on a better Foundation than they have hitherto stood.

May 23. In Consequence of the late Alarm given in this City, by the Approach of the Detachment of Spanish Horse, to surprize the Austrian Hussars near Rotondo and Ponte Molle, on the 17th arrived in this City, from Vellebri and Corroto, two Companies of the Pope's Cuirassiers and Militia, to reinforce the Garrison of this Castle and the Gates of the City. The same Day, the 17th, as the Pope's People were going the Bridge at Ponte Molle, a Party of 500 men, out of the Company of the Queen of Hungary's, attended by 50 Hussars, prevented them, and added of the Pope's Officers the Key of a final Assault at the Foot of that Bridge; which being refused, broke open the Gate, and took Possession of it, they keep a Guard. On this Notice, the Pope summoned an extraordinary Congregation, and a Reinforcement of Soldiers was ordered at the Gates del Poggio and Angelica, and Orders were given to augment regular Troops with 500 Men out of the Militia. Alexander Albini is returned from Civita Castellana, where he had been to compliment Prince Lobkowitz. On the 18th, General Colorado had an Audience of the Pope. The Austrian Army, in four Divisions, from the 18th to the 22d Instant, has halted at Rotondo, the Place of Rendezvous, where it is joined by the Rear Guard, heavy Artillery, Baggage, &c. On the 21st the Pope held a public Congregation, in which, with the usual Formalities, he gave Bulls to the Cardinals Orfini and Lindi.

June 3. The last Letters from Italy inform us, that on the 21st of last Month our Army was added to Monte Rotondo; that the Spaniards and Neapolitans had attempted to surprize one of our Magazines, by the Vigilance of Major-General Baron de Vaguer, had been prevented; that a Detachment of our Army had thereupon passed the Tiber, and routed a Body of Spaniards; and that Prince Lobkowitz, the Gross of his Army, was in full March for Vellebri, in order to force the Enemy to a Battle. Her Majesty has sent a second Rescript, to the States of Hungary, exhorting them to put that Kingdom into the State of Defence possible on all Sides; and has received a very dutiful Answer.

June 10. We are informed that a Party of Austrian Hussars have, within these two Days, made themselves Masters of some Redoubts that were garrisoned by Bavarian Troops, and which were erected for the Defence of a Bridge which the French had thrown across the Rhine above Philippsbourg, and of another below that Fort. It is no less certain, that the Emperor Charles has given Orders for laying four Bridges across that River; and that the French are fortifying themselves in the Neighbourhood of Spire and of Worms, in order to dispute the Passage with his Highness.

June 16. This Day at Noon War was declared against France, with the usual Solemnity. In this the Count de Saxe has actually failed in his great attempt of surprizing Fort Knocque; which will render the Siege of Ypres more difficult than, perhaps, the Enemy expected. They invested that City on Sunday, June 7, and the Governor began immediately to fire upon them very briskly. It is thought the Siege will last several Weeks. The following Paper may be depended on, however singular it may appear.

Report made to the Duke of Aremburg, at the Camp of Enaeme, June 10, 1744.

This Morning, at Ten o'Clock, the Lieutenant of Hussars on Duty, with the V. Guard, made Report that he had discovered, in the little Castle of Kerekhoven, on the Scheldt, a French Detachment, consisting of 60 Men, which he had block'd up on one Side, the River being on the other. The Duke of Aremburg immediately order'd a Detachment of Dragoons to support that Lieutenant; and, at the same time, sent Directions to the Prince of Chimay, to sustain him with a Company of Grenadiers from his Garrison. In the Interim, the before-mentioned Lieutenant having conferr'd with the Major who commanded the Detachment, brought him to agree to the following Capitulation, which was written with a Pencil.

Infra scriptus me, locum tenentem & ceteros omnes sub moderno meo commando existentes, oblige & obstringo, quod non ipsum arma omnia deponere, sed etiam eo usque nullum penitus servitium, nec in exercitu, nec in praesidio servitium aliquod praestabimus, donec more militari fuerimus redempti. Signatum die 10 Junii, 1744.

DE CAZA, Major.
In tergo scriptum erat, duo sergentes, duo corporales, quadraginta sex milites in toto.

DE CAZA, Major.
DE FAUT, Lieut. de Normandie.

The Sense of this extraordinary Instrument is as follows.

I the undersigned Lieutenant (Commandant) and all at present under my Command, oblige and bind (ourselves) not only to lay down our Arms, but also to undertake no Service, whether in Army or in Garrison, till such time as we are redeemed according to the Custom of War. Sign'd June 10, 1744.

DE CAZA, Major.
On the Back was written, two Sergeants, two Corporals, Forty-six private Men in all.

DE CAZA, Major.
DE FAUT, Lieut. in the Regim. of Normandy.

From the Head Quarters of the Confederate Army at Berleghem Castle, near Oudenarde, June 10, N. S. 1744.

The 31st of May, N. S. the British and Hanoverian Troops decamped from the Neighbourhood of Aiche, in two Columns, one passing thro' Alost, and the other by the Bridge at Arzenbodegem. They encamped, the Right at Borsbeek, and the Left at Erpe. The same Day, the Austrians and Dutch marched from the same Place, and encamped near Ninove. The Day following, the British and Hanoverian Troops marched in one Column from the Camp at Borsbeek, and encamped, the Right at Marie Lathem, and the Left at Yelbeck, having the River Swillme in the Front, and being two Leagues from Oudenarde. The same Day, the Dutch and Austrians marched from the Neighbourhood of Ninove, and encamped half Way to Oudenarde, leaving Grammont on the Left.

The second of June the said Troops pursued their March, and encamped within half a League of Oudenarde, where they now remain. By this Position, all the Troops can join in very few Hours.

Soon after the Troops arrived in the foresaid Camp, it was resolv'd to throw several Bridges of Boats over the Schelde, in Pursuance of which, the English made two at Gavre (which is half Way between Ghent and Oudenarde) where a Work was thrown up on the other Side to cover them. They likewise prepared another Place to erect a third Bridge over the Schelde, when required; over which River the Austrians and Dutch have likewise laid several Pontoons at Neder-Enaeme, and the Banks have been sloped in several Places, in order to throw over other Bridges, when Occasion shall require.

The Austrian Hussars have been detached to scour the Country, and have rendered themselves so formidable to the French, that their Parties dare not come within three or four Leagues of our Camp.

June 11. Yesterday 30 of our Hussars surrounded a Castle, where a Party of 50 French Foot had retired, and threatened to set Fire to it, whereupon they surrounded their Arms to the Hussars, and had Liberty to return to their Camp at Harlebeck; on a Capitulation that they should not serve in the Field this Campaign. This Treaty was in Latin, and wrote with Chalk. Upon the 6th the French invested Ypres. On the 9th, 164 Carts laden with Cannon Ball, each of 24 Pounds Weight, and 78 Pieces of Cannon of 12 Bore, set out from M. nin towards Ypres, at day of the same Time, 28 Carts laden with Powder, eight Barrels to a Cart. His Highness the Prince of Hesse, as soon as he perceived the French approaching, order'd the Cannon to be fired at them. We hear that a Detachment from the Army under Count de Saxe, consisting of 15,000 Men, march'd towards Fort Knocque upon the 8th. The French King's Quarters are at Flamingueun. The French work Day and Night to repair the Fortifications at Menin, at which Place, during the late Siege, only the Convent of the Capuchins was burnt, and the Top of the Pavillion that looks towards Ypres very much damag'd. There was no Breach made in the Walls, but the Bridges and the Barriers were entirely destroyed. The first Captain of the first Battalion of French Guards is appointed Governor there. The Army of Observation, under Count de Saxe, is encamped in the Road from Courtray to Ghent, on the Right Hand of the Causeway, with the Lis behind. They consist of 20 Battalions and 28 Squadrons. We hear from Namur, that there are eight Squadrons encamped at Fer le Grand near Maubeuge, four of the Regiment Dauphin Etranger, and four of the Regiment of Bragne; that a Regiment of Hussars is expected there very soon, and that the said Camp is to be reinforced with other Troops from the Side of la Capelle. A Detachment of an Hundred Troopers came lately from Valenciennes to reconnoiter the Sambre, which they accordingly did, from Maubeuge to la Bassiere.

Dublin, June 2. We are well informed, that many voluntary Affidavits have been made before Mr. Alderman Walker, of the unsuccessful Use of Tar Water in Dr. Sevens's Hospital, by Numbers of Patients in that House; setting forth, That after a long Series of using Tar Water, in the most strict and regular Manner, none found themselves in anywise better, but many of them much worse. These Affidavits are in the Hands of the Visitors of this Hospital, and may, at any Time, be viewed by the Curious in this Matter.

Last Monday a poor Man, who was unfortunately burnt at the Fire in King-street, died in the utmost Torture.

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices have appointed the Honourable Thomas Butler, Esq; to be one of the general Governors for the County of Limerick.

The Rev. John Crampton, M. A. Curate of St. Andrew, Dublin, Chaplain to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Tuam, is collated by his Grace to the Prebend of Kilmacmore, and the united Parishes of Kilmacmore, Kilmac Regmoorgagh, and Kilmacara, in the County of Mayo, and Diocese of Tuam, vacant by the Death of the Rev. Evan Jones.

Last Week Michael Chamberlaine, Esq; was ballotted for, and unanimously elected a Member of the Dublin Society.

We hear a Person laid before the Society, a new and neat Invention of a Fowling-Piece, that discharges two Shots, one immediately after the other; and that another Person, in Bridge-street, had wove a complete Capuchin, with Lace to it; which can be afforded much Cheaper than they are at present.

We hear from Loughlin's Town, in the County of Meath, that by a Decoy near that Place, there was found a wild Duck's Nest, 40 Feet high in a Fir Tree, with 14 Eggs in it; and that last Week the young Ones came out, and the Duck found Means to bring them all down safe. This, perhaps, is a single Instance of that Species building in Trees.

Yesterday Samuel Walker, of Hoey's Alley, Goldsmith, was try'd at the King's Bench Bar, upon an Indictment at Common Law, as a publick Cheat, for making Silver Buckles of base Metal, and affixing to them small Pieces of fine Silver, in order to get them stamp'd as Sterling, and was convicted thereof upon full and clear Evidence.

Dial, June 8. Wind W. S. W. This Morning the Harwich Man of War sailed for the River. The outward-bound Ships remain as per list. Arriv'd the Do-and Elizabeth, Simpson, from Diepe for Stockholm.

Deal, June 19. Wind N. W. In the Downs, the Mary, Bird, and the Lovely Betty, Wane, for Jamaica; the Bond, Johnson, the Mary and Merchant, Jernain, the Cambridge, Dunkin, and the Sea Horse, Randolph, for Maryland; the Baden, Glover, for Virginia; the Argyle, Seymour, and the William, Harrison, for Philadelphia.

L O N D O N.

We are informed, that Rear-Admiral Martin will very speedily sail with a strong Reinforcement to the Mediterranean; and that the Store Ships, &c. at Lisbon, will proceed under his Convoy.

We are informed, that the East-India Company in Sweden will be very speedily put under a new Regulation, by which its Stock will be quadrupled, 600 Regular Troops transported to their Settlements in the East-India, and all the Silver extracted from their Mines, devoted to the Support of that Commerce.

Private Letters from Holland mention a great Fermentation there; the People demanding an immediate Reinforcement of Troops to be sent into Flanders, in order to put a Stop to the Progress of the French Arms; at the same Time, the Party of the Prince of Orange, which is very considerable, insist peremptorily on his Highness's having the Command of that Reinforcement.

They write from Metz, that all the Forces under the Command of M. Belleisle, have actually quitted their Quarters of Cantonment, and are assembled between the Meuse and the Moselle, on the Frontiers of the Duchy of Luxemburg; and that all the Fortresses within his Excellency's Government, are in a perfect State of Defence, and admirably well provided with Ammunition, Provision, and other Necessaries.

Private Letters from Paris say, that 30 Battalions of French Troops are assembling in Dauphiny, in order to penetrate, if possible, that Way, as far as Cors; the Siege of which, will be shortly undertaken, in order to open a Passage, on that Side, into his Majesty's Dominions.

The same Letters say, that 40 Merchant Men of that Nation, under the Convoy of two Men of War, had safely enter'd the Ports of Marseilles and Toulon; but, perhaps, this Piece of News stands in need of Confirmation.

We learn from Brussels, that the Garrison of Menin is actually encamped under the Walls of the Fort of Suys; the Governor of that Fortress having refused to admit them, till such time as he has received particular Instructions on that Head, from their High Mightinesses the States General.

The same Letters say, that his Excellency Count Walsbrough is actually arrived at the Hague, from the French Camp; and that it is not doubted, as soon as he has made a Report to their High Mightinesses, the States General will immediately declare War against France, pursuant to Treaty.

We are likewise inform'd by the same Letters, that the French King has quitted his Army, and is retired to Lille; that the Marshal Count de Saxe will command the Forces that are to form the Siege of Tournay; and that his Army will consist of 35,000 Men.
